Family Story (please do not include names for privacy)

I am currently in the process of moving out of my mother's home and trying to establish a stable place for my daughter and me. With the added financial strain of moving, setting up a new home, and covering basic living expenses, I'm unable to afford Christmas gifts or extras this year. I'm doing my best to provide for my daughter, and receiving holiday assistance would help make a difference. Thanks.
